

Air Products Announces Price Increases For All Amietol Products

March 26, 2003 12:41 PM ET

Air Products (NYSE:APD) announced today that, effective April 15, 2003, it will increase prices for all Amietol™ products sold in North America by six cents per pound. The affected products include Amietol™ M21 DMEA, Amietol™ M12 MDEA, Amietol™ E21 DEEA, Monoisopropanolamine and Diisopropanolamine. These products are used primarily in the processing treatment of water and natural gas. The increases are necessary to offset rapidly increasing energy and raw materials costs associated with the production of these products.

NOTE: This release may contain forward-looking statements. Actual results could vary materially, due to changes in current expectations.