Airgas, Inc.
Schedule TO-T/A
Filed December 9, 2010
File No. 5-38422

Filed by Air Products Distribution, Inc. and Air Products and Chemicals, Inc.

Dear Ms. Campbell Duru:

On behalf of our clients Air Products and Chemicals, Inc. ("Parent") and Air Products Distribution, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (together with Parent, "Air Products"), set forth below are the responses of Air Products to the comments of the staff of the Division of Corporation Finance, Office of Mergers and Acquisitions (the "Staff"), of the Securities and Exchange Commission in the letter from you dated as of December 10, 2010 (the "Comment Letter"), regarding the above-referenced filing (the "Schedule TO").

Air Products has filed an amendment to the Schedule TO in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A ("Amendment No. 50"). This amendment includes revised disclosure to address certain of the Staff's comments in the Comment Letter.

For your convenience, each comment from the Comment Letter has been reproduced below and is followed by Air Products' response to such comment. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this letter shall have the meanings specified in the Schedule TO.

* * *

Schedule TO-T/A

1. We note that Air Products “reserves the right to further amend the Expiration Date, including by accelerating the Expiration Date, based on developments in the Delaware Action or otherwise.” Please revise to clarify how developments in the pending litigation could result in the possible acceleration of the expiration date and disclose the other circumstances to which you refer that may also lead to an accelerated expiration date. We may have further comment.

In response to the Staff’s comment, the following disclosure has been added in Amendment No. 50:

“Air Products reserves the right to further amend the Expiration Date, including by accelerating the Expiration Date, based on developments in the Delaware Action or otherwise, in each case as permitted by applicable law. Such developments in the Delaware Action may include a ruling by the Court of Chancery denying the relief requested by Air Products or the issuance of an order staying such relief, or the appeal by Airgas of any order granting such relief. Air Products also may choose to accelerate the Expiration Date for other reasons in its sole discretion, including upon the occurrence of events that lead Air Products to believe that the conditions to the Offer will not be satisfied by the Expiration Date or upon the occurrence of events or changes in the marketplace or the businesses of Air Products or Airgas that Air Products cannot predict at this time. If Air Products decides to accelerate the Expiration Date, Air Products will promptly file an amendment to the Schedule TO and issue a press release announcing such amendment.”

2. Further to our comment above. Please confirm that a minimum of five business days will remain in the offer following the announcement of an accelerated expiration date. Further, please advise us how you will disseminate information about an accelerated expiration date to securityholders. Refer generally to Rule 14d-4(d)(1). We may have further comment.

Air Products confirms its understanding that if it announces an accelerated Expiration Date, a minimum of five business days will remain in the Offer from the date such announcement is first published, sent or given to securityholders. Additionally, Air Products advises the Staff that if it announces an accelerated Expiration Date, Air Products will promptly amend the Schedule TO and issue a press release announcing such change.
